

DP WORLD Chennai bestowed with the Tamil Chamber of Commerce EXIM Achievement Award for handling 1.12 million TEUs in 2007-08

The Tamil Chamber of Commerce, continuously contributing and protecting the interests of trade and commerce for the last 65 years, for the first time in its history felicitated the EXIM Trade and CHA fraternity in an Achievement and Service Awards function held on the 24th of March at Chennai. The award was presented by the Governor of Tamil Nadu, His Excellency Sri.Surjit Singh Barnala. The award was received by Mr.Ennarasu Karunesan, Director & CEO, DP World Chennai.

DP World Chennai received the prestigious EXIM Achievement Award for handling 1.12 million TEUs in the financial year 2007-08.

DP World Chennai has facilitated the growth of Chennai' s EXIM trade over the last 7 years and contributed to the growth of South India' s trade and India' s economy. Unmatched efficiency at minimal cost coupled with simplified and effective procedures, ISO9001:2000, ISO14000:2004, OHSAS18001:2007, ISO27001 & ISO28000:2007 certifications have been the hallmarks of DP World Chennai. India' s trade is re energized with the recognition bestowed by The Tamil Chamber of Commerce.

With additional facilities, state-of-the-art equipments and re-engineered processes, DP World Chennai' s commitment to the development of South India' s trade is reenergized with the recognition bestowed by The Tamil Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Ennarasu Karunesan, Director & CEO, DP World Chennai receiving the award from the Governor of Tamil Nadu, His Excellency Sri.Surjit Singh Barnala. Looking on from left: Mr.Chozha Naachiar Rajashekar, President, Tamil Chamber of Commerce and Sri.Nalli Kuppaswami Chetti, Patron, Tamil Chamber of Commerce